NEW YORK, Dec. 16.-The American league simply will not tolerate John M. Ward being elected president of the National league to succeed John A. Heydler, according to Ban B. Johnson gave out a letter league meeting, Johnson gave out a letter which he has sent to August Herrmann, chairman of the National commission, who was instrumential in ending the war between the National and the American be an agitation against playing on Thangs-leagues in 1903. Ward was seriously considered for the presidency of the National league, it ocpresidency of the National league, it oc-casioned me much surprise and raised the question as to the sincerity of purpose of your organization. Since the organizing of the peace pact and the creation of national agreement, organized base ball has moved along in a broad straight channel with moderate friction.

Iowa has pleased the state by coming forward with an offer to meet Drake on November 12. Drake has accepted and the contest will take place at Iowa City. This leaves November 5 for the annual Iowa-Ames game, and there is no doubt but the contest will come on this day. Nebraska and Ames will renew relations and the game will occur on November 12.

The Iowa championship contests will all come in November next year, which is pleasing to the Iowa foot ball fans. Iowa and Ames will meet first; then will come the Drake-Iowa contest; and last will occur the Drake-Ames battle. The teams will have an excellent chance to show how strong they are next year.

Cornhuskers Do Not Want to Play Aggles on Their Open Date.

LINCOLN, Dec. 14.—(Special.)—Negotiations for a foot ball game to be played between Nebraska and Ames next fall seem likely to fall through, as they did a year ago, with the result that the Cornhuskers will not bave the Aggies on their schedule again. The hitch in the efforts to get together on a game is the inability of the two schools to agree on a date for their contest. This was the obstacle in the way of their meeting last fall, and is the only thing in the way of an agreement for a 1918 encounter.

In order to have played Ames during the season that just closed the Cornhuskers would have to had met them on the Saturday before the Kansas game in Lincoln, and the Nebraska management feared that a hard battle before the Jayhawker contest would result in a defeat for the Cornhuskers with the Kansas eleven. Cornhusker Right Tackle Leads Easily for Place.

ATHLETIC BOARD FOR REVISION

Chancellor and University Authorities Go on Record in Favor of Modification of Foot Ball Rules.

LINCOLN, Dec. 14 .- (Special Telegram.) -Leroy Temple of Lexington was Monday elected to captain the 1910 Nebraska foot ball eleven. Temple played right tackle on the varsity 'ast fall. He has been on the Cornhusker team for two seasons, and during the one that just closed he was considered an all western tackle. Two players opposed Temple for the position. They were V. Shonka, center, and Harvey Rathbone, full back. On the first ballot the vote stood: Temple, 10; Shonka, 4, and Rathbone, 1. The fifteen letter men agreed to make the election unanimous and cast the entire vote for

Temple has been registered in the university for the last three years. For two years he took academic work and now he as a freshman in the law college. He is a members of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, and is one of the most popular students in the university. Preceding the foot ball election the members of the cross country team appeared before the board and selected a captain for their team next fall, with W. A. Melick being given a unanimous vote. Melick won second place for his team in the annual western meet at Chicago in November. Chancellor Samuel Avery appeared before the athletic board to report on a letter he had received from colleges in the state urging that Nebraska take a step for foot ball reform. All the leading colleges in the state had asked that Neconference this month act for the entir state in trying to get sane foot ball. The Nebraska chancellor read a letter addressed to him by Prof. David Stari Jordan of Leiand Stanford university requesting him to recommend the substitu tion of Rugby for American foot ball. The California educator has written similar letters to all the college presidents in the west in an attempt to do away with the modern game. Game Must Be Changed.

In his talk to the athletic board, Chancellor Avery said he did not favor Rugby foot ball, but that he was strongly in favor of the present game, providing it could be so modified as to eliminate some of the brutal plays. "I like the game of foot ball," said the chancellor "and I hope it can be saved to the American colleges. I realize, however, order to make it a game that can be sanctioned for future years. I do not know anything about the Rugby game, but I think I would rather have our own American game than it.
